

PortAventura World presents Moonride Music Nights: a new musical experience across the Worlds

The "Noches de Fuego en Tahití" show at PortAventura World

PortAventura World, July 22, 2025. – This summer, PortAventura World is launching Moonride Music Nights, a brand-new concept that invites guests to experience PortAventura Park from a whole new perspective. On four Saturdays—August 2, 16, and 30, and September 6—music and live entertainment will transform every corner of the park into an immersive, festive nighttime experience.

Designed as themed evenings featuring special artistic programming across all park areas, Moonride Music Nights enhance the summer offering with an experience tailored for visitors of all ages. It blends entertainment, performances, and adrenaline in the magical setting of PortAventura Park.

Guests with any type of park ticket for that day will have access to the Moonride Music Night at no additional cost. For those who prefer to enjoy the event more casually, a dedicated night-time event ticket will also be available for purchase.

DJ sets, mariachi bands, country music, habaneras, line dancing, mini-discos, and street performances will bring vibrant energy to themed areas such as Mediterrània, México, Far West, China, and SésamoAventura until 1:00 a.m. Major attractions like Shambhala, Dragon Khan, Furius Baco, and Uncharted: El Enigma de Penitence will also remain open during this extended schedule.

Moonride Music Nights become part of PortAventura's special summer program, which also features flagship shows such as Noches de Fuego en Tahití, Birthday Parade and FiestAventura 30th Anniversary.
